The Lewis will be divided every 20 entries or major portion thereof, minimum of 4 classes, 50-30-20 High Gun.

Junior Shooters (18 years or under)
The League will reimburse the host Club for targets and the League will absorb the registration & hidden score fee for Juniors shooting targets only.
If a Junior shooter wishes to play the Lewis option then they must also pay for the targets, registration and hidden score fee.

The following pages summarize the current rules & regulations of the Silver Horseshoe Trap League.

Silver Horseshoe Trap League Rules & Regulations

ATA rules and regulations apply except as otherwise covered by S.H.T.L. rules.

1. S.H.T.L. Shoots

   Shoots are generally held the third Sunday of each month. The date may be altered to avoid conflict with recognized holidays or other major shoots.

2. Registration

   Pre-squadding is available for the season
   Non-squadded shooters may register up to 1:00 p.m. the day of the shoot.

3. Pre-Shooting
   Shooters unable to attend due to a prior commitment may shoot ahead, within three (3) weeks of the scheduled date, at the Club hosting the shoot. This option may be exercised twice only during the season. The score will qualify for the Club team, High 400 & 300 trophies and classification requirements. The score will not be eligible for Lewis monies. The score will be eligible for Hidden Score.

4. Shooter's Responsibility

   Every shooter is responsible for checking the master score sheet before leaving the Club. Any score under protest must be corrected the day of the shoot.

5. S.H.T.L. Bulletin

   Following each shoot the Lewis & Hidden Score monies will be mailed to each Club Rep. The monthly report will include the Club Team scores, Pin winners, pay-off winners, Team standings and a list of the shooters scores & averages.

6. Scoring & Point System

   The top (8) eight scores from each Club will count for the Team score.
   Club Standing 1st place = 3 points
   2nd place = 2 points
   3rd place = 1 point
